Lead Titles

A Year at Hotel Gondola Nicky Pellegrino $34.99 TPB

Kat has never wanted to live a small, everyday sort of life. She's an adventurer, a food writer who travels the world visiting far-flung places and eating unusual fare. Now she is about to embark on her biggest adventure yet – a relationship. She has fallen in love with an Italian man and is moving to live with him in Venice where she will help him run his small guesthouse, Hotel Gondola. Kat has lined up a book deal and will write about the first year of her new adventure: the food she eats, the recipes she collects, the people she meets, the man she doesn't really know all that well but is going to make a life with...

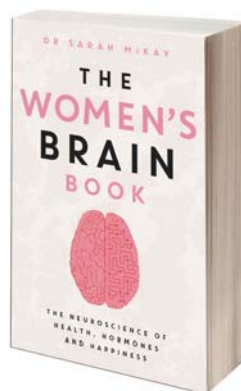

Nicky has been a Top Ten bestselling author fifty-two times in NZ; her novels have been translated in twelve languages.

The Catalogue of the Universe Margaret Mahy $19.99 PB

Angela is passionate, confident and popular, living a slightly eccentric life with her mother. Her best friend Tyco prefers the company of his telescope and philosophy books – anything to escape the chaos of his family. When Angela tries to track down her estranged father and Tyco confronts some long-held feelings, events are brought to a dramatic conclusion.

The Women's Brain Dr. Sarah Murray $34.99 TPB

This is not a book about the differences between male and female brains, nor a book using neuroscience to explain gender-specific behaviours or the battle of the sexes. This is a book about what happens to the brains of women as they cycle through the phases of life, which are unique to females by virtue of their biology and in particular their hormones. Dr Sarah McKay is an Oxford-educated, respected neuroscientist and the founder of the Neuroscience Academy.

The Cutting Edge Jeffrey Deaver $34.99 TPB

Number one bestselling author and ultimate thriller writer, Jeffrey Deaver returns with a new Lincoln Rhyme investigation. William and Anna went to collect her engagement ring but their murder is only the first of a series of macabre attacks. Lincoln Rhyme and Amelia Sachs, newly married themselves, are on the hunt and will have to use all their own skills and determination to break his vow.

Stories for Boys Who Dare to Be Different Ben Brooks $39.99 HB

As a boy, there is an assumption that you will conform to a stereotypical idea of masculinity, but what if you prefer to pick up a book rather than a sword; what if you're very sensitive? This offers a welcome alternative to unhelpful gender stereotypes. It is an extraordinary compilation of stories of men from the past to the present day including Kiwi Taika Waititi, Frank Ocean, Barack Obama and more!
