The Stars are Fire

Anita Shreve $34.99 TPB

1947. After a summer-long drought, fires are racing along the coast of Maine, ravaging two hundred thousand acres - the largest fire in the state's history.

Five months pregnant, Grace Holland is left alone to protect her two toddlers when her husband Gene joins the volunteers fighting to bring the fire under control. Along with her best friend, Rosie, and Rosie's two young children, Grace watches in horror as their houses go up in flames. When dawn comes, they have miraculously survived, but their lives are forever changed.

As Grace awaits news of her husband's fate, she is thrust into a new world in which she must make a life on her own, beginning with absolutely nothing - she must find work, a home, a way to provide for her children. In the midst of devastating loss, Grace discovers glorious new freedoms - joys and triumphs she could never have expected her narrow life with Gene could contain. And then the unthinkable happens.

This is the stunning new novel from the author of The Pilot's Wife, Rescue and The Lives of Stella Bain.

Five Forget Mother's Day

Bruno Vincent $19.99 HB

After giving up gluten, booze (not to mention becoming parents) Julian, George, Dick, Anne and Timmy now face their next challenge...if they could just remember what it is...

Things go from bad to worse when Fanny comes to stay, with relations strained almost to breaking point. Can the Five save the day, and will Uncle Quentin get involved?

From Cradle to Stage

Virginia Hanlon Grohl
$36.99 TPB

When Virginia saw Nirvana play for the first time to crazed applause, she knew nothing would ever be the same. She was the mother of a rock star.

From Cradle to Stage, featuring an exclusive introduction by Dave Grohl, is an intimate portrait of what makes a rock star by Virginia Grohl, the mother of the Foo Fighters' frontman.

Includes interviews with the mothers of Dr Dre, Adam Levine, Amy Winehouse and Pharrell.

Leadership Material

Diana Jones $37.99 TPB

Wellington-based, Diana Jones does not shy away from the "soft side" of leadership. An executive coach for 30-years, Jones argues that empathy, compassion and authentic communication derived from personal experience are both powerful and essential to enhancing executive presence, influencing others and achieving results. In Leadership Material Jones uses compelling stories and examples taken directly from her coaching sessions with experienced leaders to show just how strong your "soft side" can be.

The Baltimore Boys

Joël Dicker $36.99 TPB

Fresh from the staggering success of The Truth about the Harry Quebert Affair, Marcus Goldman is struggling to write his third novel.

A chance encounter throws him some inspiration and memories of his childhood come flooding back. Memories of a family torn apart by tragedy and a once glorious legacy reduced to shame and ruin.

The Baltimore Boys is both a sequel and a prequel to The Truth about the Harry Quebert Affair - it deals with prior events but is narrated after the action of Harry Quebert is concluded.

Six Tudor Queens:
Anne Boleyn: A King's Obsession
Alison Weir $36.99 TPB

Anne Boleyn: A King's Obsession by bestselling historian Alison Weir, is the second captivating novel in the 'Six Tudor Queens' series.

An unforgettable portrait of the ambitious woman whose fate we know all too well, but whose true motivations may surprise you. Essential reading for fans of Philippa Gregory and Elizabeth Chadwick.

Beyond the Wild River
Sarah Maine $32.99 TPB

From the author of The House Between Tides, comes an atmospheric historical novel. It is a spellbinding and beautiful novel from a gorgeous and evocative new voice in fiction, perfect for fans of Kate Morton, Santa Montefiore and Stef Penney.

The President's Gardens
Muhsin Al-Ramli $37.99 TPB

On the third day of Ramadan, the village wakes to find the severed heads of nine of its sons stacked in banana crates by the bus stop. One of them belonged to one of the most wanted men in Iraq...

The President's Gardens is a satirical tragedy of epic proportions. It spans the years of Saddam Hussein's rule in Iraq between the early eighties and the invasion of 2003.

The Blood Miracles
Lisa McInerney $37.99 TPB

Like all twenty-year-olds, Ryan Cusack is trying to get his head around who he is. Then his boss makes a drastic new business turn and forces Ryan to find out what he's made of...and it might be that chaos is in his blood. The second novel from the author of the Baileys Prize-winning The Glorious Heresies.

These Dividing Walls
Fran Cooper $34.99 TPB

One Parisian summer. A building of separate lives. All that divides them will soon collapse...

This is a timely novel set in contemporary Paris. It is an intelligent, beautiful and challenging read which will compel you from the beginning and stay with you long after the last page is turned.

The Hourglass
Tracy Rees $34.99 TPB

The Hourglass is a moving novel about reinvention and reconciliation; about finding love even after it seems too late, about family and the healing power of a magical place by the sea.

Perfect for fans of Lucinda Riley and Dinah Jefferies' The Tea Planter's Wife.

The Best Kind of People
Zoe Whittall $34.99 TPB

What if someone you trusted was accused of the unthinkable?

The Best Kind of People is a portrait of a family on the brink of collapse. It gives no easy answers, but once you stay up all night reading it, you'll want to talk about it with everyone you know.

I'll Eat When I'm Dead
Barbara Bourland $34.99 TPB

The Devil Wears Prada with a murderous twist, I'll Eat When I'm Dead is a rampant satire on the fashion industry and a genre-busting women's commercial debut. Biting, intelligent and incredibly entertaining – this has savvy coming out the wazoo and will have you chortling over your tea from chapter one.

Stars Across the Ocean
Kimberley Freeman $34.99 TPB

A rich and satisfying story of two women with indomitable spirits and the high costs they have to pay for being strong-minded, from the author of the bestselling Evergreen Falls.

Kimberley Freeman's new novel is an enthralling story about love, motherhood and choosing where (and with whom) you belong.

Closing Down

Sally Abbott $36.99 TPB

An extraordinary debut novel from an exciting new voice: conjuring a dark future for Australia, Closing Down gives us a glimpse into a world fractured by a financial crisis and the effects of global climate change. Sally Abbott is the inaugural winner of The Richell Prize for Emerging Writers.

One Quiet Woman

Anna Jacobs $34.99 TPB

The Boy on the Bridge

M.R. Carey $34.99 TPB

Once upon a time, in a land blighted by terror, there was a very clever boy. The people thought the boy could save them, so they opened their gates and sent him out into the world. To where the monsters lived.

M.R. Carey returns to the world of his phenomenal word-of-mouth bestseller, The Girl With All the Gifts.

Here Comes Trouble

Simon Wroe $37.99 TPB

From the Costa-shortlisted author of Chop Chop, Here Comes Trouble is a comic novel with bite. Set in a collapsing country—where larger-than-life characters make promises they can't keep—it's the perfect read for our strange, tumultuous times.

Persephone

Julian Stockwin $37.99 TPB

'In Stockwin's hands the sea story will continue to entrance readers across the world' – The Guardian.

Unputdownable naval action from the master of the sea story. Perfect for fans of Patrick O'Brian, Bernard Cornwell and anyone who's dreamed of a swashbuckling adventure during the great Age of Sail.

Rotherwerd

Andrew Caldecott $37.99 TPB

'Intricate and crisp, witty and solemn: a book with special and dangerous properties,' – Hilary Mantel

Rotherwerd is twisted, arcane murder-mystery with shades of Deborah Harkness, Ben Aaronovitch, Mervyn Peake and Edward Gorey at their disturbing best.

The Girl Who Knew Too Much

Amanda Quick $34.99 TPB

The Burial Hour

Jeffery Deaver $34.99 TPB

The only leads in a broad-daylight kidnapping are the account of an eight-year-old girl, some nearly invisible trace evidence and the calling card: a miniature noose left lying on the street. The thirteenth Lincoln Rhyme thriller will see a gruesome crime go global...

The Liar

Steve Cavanagh $34.99 TPB

A missing child. A criminal lawyer. A corrupt case. A must-read for fans of Lee Child, John Grisham and Michael Connelly. Combining gripping action and ingenious plotting, The Liar is the brilliant new legal thriller from the author of The Defence and The Plea.

The Secrets of My Life

Caitlyn Jenner $37.99 TPB

The transition from Bruce Jenner, the 'world's greatest athlete', to Caitlyn Jenner has been one of the biggest news stories of 2015 and 2016. However, there is still more to tell as Jenner furthers her transition and sees the world through her new identity. The Secrets of My Life chronicles every facet of Jenner's transition to womanhood.

Since We Fell

Dennis Lehane $32.99 TPB

On a Tuesday in May, in her thirty-seventh year, Rachel shot her husband dead.

Since We Fell is a novel of profound psychological insight and tension. It is heart-breaking, suspenseful, romantic and sophisticated. This is Dennis Lehane at his very best.

The Choice

Samantha King $37.99 TPB

With a staggering twist you won't see coming, The Choice is a hypnotic suspense debut from a remarkable new talent and explores every parent's worst nightmare: What if you had to choose which of your children could live and which had to die?

Admissions

Henry Marsh $37.99 TPB

In this searing, provocative and deeply personal memoir, the bestselling author of Do No Harm finds new purpose in his own life as he approaches the end of his professional career and a fresh understanding of what matters to us all in the end.

Parting Shot

Linwood Barclay $29.99 TPB

If you made a mistake that took someone's life, you'd remember it . . . wouldn't you? A gripping thriller packed with scandal (and a vicious revenge plot) in a small town, from the master of the twist you never saw coming – hats off to international bestseller, Linwood Barclay.

My Sister

Michelle Adams $37.99 TPB

Two sisters. Two separate lives. One family bound by a harrowing secret.

Red Teaming

Bryce G. Hoffman $37.99 TPB

The ingenious and counterintuitive practice of red teaming has its origins in the military, and involves creating a group of devil's advocates to think like the enemy, challenge existing assumptions within an organisation and find holes in its strategy. Red Teaming is the first major book to look at this business application.

Skitter

Ezekiel Boone $34.99 TPB

According to scientist Melanie Gruyer, the spider situation seems to be looking up... that is until a giant, truck-sized, glowing egg sack is discovered. Every country must fight for itself. And the spiders are on the move. The first wave has been defeated but something worse is yet to come...

Scale

Geoffrey West $37.99 TPB
